

DOCENT PROGRAM INFORMATION & APPLICATION

Docents at the Meadows Museum engage visitors with the artwork in the galleries, from school groups and families to college students and adult groups.

Meadows Museum docents are volunteers who form a committed learning community. Docents enjoy weekly instruction on Spanish art from curators, academics, and educators as well as training on gallery-based teaching strategies.

COMMITMENTS:

- Regularly attend weekly docent education sessions on Monday mornings from 10:00 to 11:30 a.m. between mid-August and May.
- Attend New Docent Training sessions on Monday afternoons from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. from mid-August to May.
- Following successful completion of training, lead at least three tours per month.
- Maintain a membership at the Meadows Museum.

The Meadows Museum Education Department is looking for volunteers passionate about the arts and education. The Meadows Museum values staff and volunteers that reflect the diversity of Dallas.
