

CRAYONS & CARDS

This artwork has a special story. The artist, Joan Miró, drew it and wrote a message in Spanish to his friends: "To Mr. and Mrs. Algor Meadows, affectionately."

Then Mr. Meadows gave the drawing as a gift to his friend Dr. Jordan. Later, Dr. Jordan framed the drawing and gave it back to Mr. Meadows. Finally, Mr. Meadows returned the drawing to Dr. Jordan. It now belongs to the Meadows Museum.

The drawing had such a special journey between these friends!

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Use crayons and paper to make a drawing.
2. Write a message to a friend on your drawing.
3. Fold the paper in half to make it a card.
4. Mail the card to a friend. Ask them to send you a card, too!
