

I'm going to visit the Meadows Museum with my class.

I will have fun looking at art with my classmates.

When we arrive, the bus will drop us off in front of the museum.

CLASS VISIT TO THE MEADOWS MUSEUM

MEADOWS MUSEUM
SMU • DALLAS

When I get off the bus, I will see the sculpture called Wave.

It moves just like a wave in the ocean and is made of steel.

We will walk up the stairs or use the elevator in the parking garage to get to the museum's entrance.

We will walk past the sculpture called Sho on our way to the museum's front entrance.

There are lots of sculptures on the museum's plaza.

I can look closely, but I will not touch or climb on them.

When we enter the museum, my teacher will go to the desk to check in for our visit.

I can get a map of the museum that shows me where the restrooms and galleries are located.

Large bags, backpacks, and other bulky items cannot be taken into the galleries.
It is best if we leave them at school, but there are some unmonitored cubbies available for temporary storage.

If we have a docent guide, they will meet us in the lobby and lead us through the galleries.

They may or may not be wearing a mask, just like me.

To get to the galleries,
we can take the stairs or the elevator.
If I take the elevator, I may have to wait,
and it may be crowded inside,
but it will only take a minute.

CLASS VISIT TO THE MEADOWS MUSEUM

In the galleries, I can look at artwork and share my ideas about it.

I can take pictures of some of the artwork too.

I just need to make sure there is not a no photography sign near the label.

If I am not sure, I can ask a docent or a security guard.

When I take pictures, I need to make sure my flash is turned off.

There are some special rules we need to follow when we visit the galleries:

1. I cannot touch the art, frames, or pedestal stands.
2. I cannot lean on the walls.
3. I cannot have food, drinks, or gum in the galleries.
4. I will stay with my class.
5. I will use my inside voice and walking feet.

When we finish visiting the museum, we will return to our bus to leave.

I can come back with my family and friends to see more art!
